

The California Classic Pro-Am returns to the Palm Springs Desert Resorts for the 18th consecutive year offering a fantastic line up of golf courses and a superb five-star host hotel.

Set in the Coachella Valley, the manicured desert oasis of the Palm Springs Desert Resorts is one of America's most exclusive winter retreats. The scenery is stunning, the atmosphere is laid back and relaxed. The area offers a wide range of shopping, from designer boutiques to modern malls, along with a choice of restaurants and bars.

Located 150 miles east of Los Angeles, the area offers a superb winter climate. Daily high temperatures in the Palm Springs area in late November typically average around 24°C (75°F).

The Golf Courses

Indian Wells Golf Resort Players Course

Indian Wells Golf Resort is home to two superb courses - The Players Course & The Celebrity Course. Located just behind the Hyatt Grand Champions Resort, both courses were completely redesigned in recent years, and now offer two outstanding layouts with beautifully manicured conditions, water features and vibrant floral surroundings.

SilverRock Resort

SilverRock Resort, one of the host courses of The Bob Hope Classic, is situated at the base of the Santa Rosa and Coral Mountains, offering players gorgeous backdrops and surrounding vistas, along with excellent service.

Desert Willow Mountain View Course is a picturesque and playable course offering spectacular views. A good short game is required to negotiate your way on to the greens which feature large undulations with almost every possible pin placement!

The Classic Club opened to rave reviews in January 2006. This player friendly Arnold Palmer designed course features rolling terrain and several elevated tees.
